J. Gardiner, Esq.,

Librarian, Ontario Agricultural College,

Guelph, Ont.

Dear Mr. Gardiner:

Dr. Tory is now in England but has not published any report. It is possible that if you were to write the Secretary of the National Committee of the Y.M.C.A., 120 Bay Street, Toronto, he might be able to give you an outline of the report, though I am doubtful whether it has been published.

No central college has yet been located, and now while the war is being waged so vigorously this summer it is doubtful whether the work can be carried on except in the most fragmentary way. The idea is that when demobilisation comes the military authorities will set apart one camp and bring to it all those soldiers who desire to receive educational training of whatever kind and that instructors will be appointed. The supervision of the work, the appointment of teachers, the courses of instruction will all be under Dr. Tory, but he has not yet given us any definite outline of his scheme.

Yours sincerely,

President.
